

Dice, Dragons & Daring to Socialize

A Social Skills Group for Teens 13-17

Who?	A mix of social & unsocial teenagers
When?	Summer 2019: Tuesdays 5:30-8:00 PM July 16 through August 20
Where?	Room for Change 3256 Southern Dr. Garland
Cost?	$50 per session- $45 if paid upfront
How?	Call Marvin Bellows LPC-Intern, CRC Supervised by Amanda Esquivel LPC-S, LCDC at 469-991-5655 for inquiries.

Skills addressed include:

Turn Taking	Perspective Taking	Team Building
Verbal & Nonverbal Communication	Self-Expression	Initiative Taking
Empathy Building	Self-Confidence
	Critical Thinking

While this is not primarily a process group – the nature of narrative storytelling and improvisation in the group will provide participants with the opportunity to engage with and problem solve difficult situations and themes from their daily lives.

This group does not require any previous history with role-playing games or any costly materials. All materials needed will be provided. Rules for the game have been simplified to allow for greatest therapeutic use of time.

A pre-group individual screening is required.

